This gives people the opportunity to check out what these artists are working on and what's going on in their studios. That has been the biggest surprise for me this year. Artists working in the ceramic and fiber arts could really take advantage of this booth space, as did ceramic artist Michael Troy. He has a booth dedicated to his pastels on paper series, which are just fantastic. I've enjoyed checking out his work, as well as seeing some new work from other artists. His new work is amazing and the color of his pastel paper pieces remind me a little of the work of Mary Heilmann. Other artists like Maki Takahashi, Chris Kuchar, and Joel Rabaino have booths as well, and the other elements in the exhibit 2d92ce491b
