A: This feature is available on the 2019 version: In the Options dialog under the "Sketch & Extrude" section, there is an option labeled "Enable sketch and extrude as a compound sketch" Sketch and Extrude is on by default. A: There is a workaround if you don't have the key of the new version, first you need the password of the same user in the database of the old version, by running the autocad.exe command. After that, create a new version and install it on the same machine where your old one is.
