PDF Transcript Introducing Logic And Critical Thinking: The Skills Of Reasoning And The Virtues Of Inquiry Lilith blogia (Logic And Critical Thinking) by Justine Leonardo on September 23, 2015. Your Idea Can Be Better Than Your But, How Could I Do It Better? Your mind works in a certain way. That way is the only way that it knows how to work. If it is to change or be transformed, it must change. It can 'learn to find a different way to do things if it is so inclined. It must have time and opportunity for itself. The more it learns, the more it comes to see that it must change. The learning is a process that requires an investment of time and energy. The time and energy are all part of the process.

The investment of time and energy is itself a cost. There is a cost to change. If it is not an investment of time and energy, it is not a transformation. It may be a better idea, but not a transformation of the mind. It is not easy or quick, and it takes place over time. There is no other way. In fact, there is no such thing as a quick or easy way to change the mind. No one has ever done it in a manner that is assured or quick. You have to live it. You have to invest in yourself. You have to learn and think in a different manner. You have to think in a new way. And you have to invest time and energy in learning this. This is the part of the process that is hard to see. It seems to be just a cost to change. But it is really not. It is part of the process of change that is necessary. You invest in the process. You invest in yourself. And you learn to think in a new way. The investment of time and energy, of course, becomes apparent over time. You notice that there has been a change. You notice that you no longer think the same way. You learn to not only 'think differently' but 'feel differently' as well. You learn to learn differently. You learn that there is no short cut. You learn that you must invest the time and energy. You learn that there is no one who can do it for you. There is no shortcut. You learn that it is your mind that must change. You learn that you
